

On Saturday, October 21, 2006, The Frances Foundation for Kids Fighting Cancer, a Monmouth County non-profit charity, will honor Jets Football Great Joe Klecko at its second annual dinner dance at The Ocean Place Resort and Spa in Long Branch. It will be a fabulous evening for a great cause for kids.

The guest of honor Joe Klecko is the 4-time Pro Ball All-Star who destroyed NFL offenses during his illustrious professional football career. Joe is 1 of only 3 Jets to have his uniform number (#73) retired by the team; and he is universally recognized as the #1 fan favor member of the famous "Sack Exchange." Joe is being honored for his continuous contributions to our community and various charitable causes.

This black-tie optional gala is open to the public (tickets must be purchased in advance). Guests will be thrilled to view numerous silent auction items and gift baskets during the cocktail hour commencing at 7:00 p.m., as well as a chef's presentation of hors d'oeuvres and pasta stations. Dinner will include a duet entree of filet mignon and shrimp and scallop cake, followed by an assortment of desserts.

Entertainment will include live music, including a performance by "Mid-Life Crisis," dancing, and a 50/50. For ticket information please call Christine Sullivan or Bob Heugle at 732-410-2383. All proceeds will directly benefit kids with cancer and their financially challenged families. The compassionate mission of The Frances Foundation is "Smiles for Kids."

Cancer Survivor Sami and her Dad.