The Count Basie Theatre celebrates its 80th Anniversary with an “Open House” performance for families, starring Miss Sherri and the Little Animal Band. Tickets are just 70 cents per person, the same ticket price as the Basie’s opening night on November 11, 1926!

With colorful characters on stage like Senor Patron, the saxophone playing herbivore; Jazzy and Classy, a dashing duo of singing giraffes; Bobby Blue, the funky bass playing ape; Rockin’ Ruthie, a cavalier King Charles Spaniel guitarist; and Rockin’ Reggie, the hottest dog drummer since hotdogs; singing and dancing will abound as the Little Animal Band rocks the house.

Miss Sherri has shared the stage with Sesame Street’s Elmo and Gordon, and her first CD, Jelly Belly Boo-Ga-Loo was named Best 2005 Musical Education CD by the Parent to Parent Adding Wisdom Award, and was recommended for 3-10 year olds by Parenting Magazine’s Mom Tested Buying Guide: “Rich vocals and fetching arrangements make this collection of salsa, R&B, and rock tunes a standout. Kid-centric lyrics about planes, trains, and animals will please the intended audience.”

The Little Animal Band features some of the Jersey Shore’s grooviest musicians and vocalists: Miss Sherri (Lead vocals, acoustic guitar), Eric Salkin (saxophone), Jeff “Mole” Moller (electric guitar), Frank Certo (percussion), Eric Amadeo (drums, percussion), Whitney Kelly and Alicia Lee from Count Basie Theatre Cool School, dancing vocalists; Alicia Lei; Amanda Duncan and Susan Haugenes (vocals), Joanna Burns (piano, vocals), Vinnie Puryear (bass), Bob Pantella (drums), and Tony Sloan (Spanish guitar), with makeup by Linda Gayoso.

This concert celebrates the 80th Anniversary of the theatre and the release of Miss Sherri’s newest CD, “My Green Shoes.”

The Little Animal Band will be in the lobby to meet, greet and sign autographs after the show!
